

SIGNS A BROKEN HEART CAN'T HIDE

Words & music by Ty Lacy & Jack Fowler

There's no way to ignore it
You can see it in their eyes
Wounds of a heart
Are hard to disguise
They bleed through the mask
Of a smiling face
As it hides in the shadows
Of its pride and shame

(Chorus)

When your heart beats like thunder
Rollin' back in the sky
And your tears fall like rain
On a dark, stormy night
These are the signs of an achin'
Poundin' deep down inside
These are the signs a broken heart can't hide
These are the signs a broken heart can't hide

Love is a weapon
To the hurting soul
It can ease the pain
It can weaken the blow
What life throws at us
Like stones against our faith
Love can heal
It can make a change

(Repeat chorus)
